Delhi Public School Gaya is situated in a lush green ambience and provides quality education in the district of Gaya, Bihar. It is about 10 km away from Gaya Railway Station. The school was established in 2013 under the aegis of the Delhi Public School Society, New Delhi.

When enlightenment is the central engagement, Gaya is the most magnificent and desired destination and Delhi Public School Gaya is the most essential game changer in the arena of spreading enlightenment through all scholastic and co-scholastic avenues.

GAYA is of historical significance and is one of the major tourist attractions of the state of Bihar. Gaya is sanctified in the Jain, Hindu, and Buddhist religions. Gaya is mentioned in the great epics, the Ramayana and the Mahabharata. It is where Rama, with Sita and Lakshmana, came to offer 'pind' for their father, Raja Dasharath, and continues to be a major Hindu pilgrimage site for the 'pind-daan' ritual. Bodh Gaya, where Buddha is said to have attained enlightenment, is a holy site of Buddhism. The Mahabodhi Temple complex at Bodh Gaya is a World Heritage site.
